

Your Special Day

Art
from Light

Our goal is to provide the coverage you want with all of our photographic and creative expertise. You can have any or all of the choices below.

Modern handmade albums

Our beautiful and timeless albums record the story of your day so you can re-live the magic every time you open it. We offer several different style albums from magazine to aperture. All are creatively designed by us to create a unique storybook of your day.

Each album is hand made in Australia to your exact specifications with an enormous choice of covers, from leather to metal to brushed acrylic.

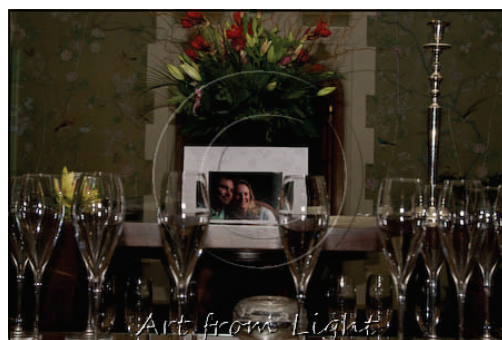

- 20 side magazine album from £370
- 20 side aperture album from £410

When you choose your wedding photographer its important that you like how they present the final images.

Mounted photo of the bride and groom for your guests to sign £125

A 10 " x 15" print taken at our studio before the wedding mounted at the wedding for guests to leave you a special message around the 5" wide border. This is a great chance to work with us so that you know what to expect on the big day.

Clients tell us that they feel much more relaxed about being photographed on their special day once they've done this shoot with us. If you'd like to do the shoot at a location of your choice prices start from £185. This could be where you had your first date or even at the wedding venue.

Coverage

We can provide full or partial coverage of the day including:

- Bride and groom getting ready
- Leaving and arriving at ceremony
- Ceremony
- Bride and groom romantic and fun shots
- Formal photos of family groups
- Speeches and cutting the cake
- 1st dance
- All the details: flowers, table decorations, details in the dress, and so much more.

Second day shoot from £150

If you don't want to make time within the day for some intimate shots we can come back the next day we do another session with you - this can also include any one else you'd like. You've usually still got all the outfits so it's easy.

We love these sessions because they are fun and relaxed and therefore more personal - but there's no pressure because no-one is waiting for their dinner!

This means the photography on the actual day can be kept to a minimum and still give you stunning images. These sessions often only take 1 hour depending on where you want to do it and any ideas you might have.

CD slide show - £50

A CD slide show of your album pages set to music - free when you buy an album.

DVD Storybook - £300

The DVD storybook is your day set to music in a modern and unique way. Because it's different to your album it makes a lovely addition.

Bridal shoot - £125

Before the big day this is an opportunity for the bride to get her very own portrait session in her dress, shoes and makeup. Feel like a movie star and get some amazing images of you at your absolute best. We'll include 3 12"x8" prints of your choice.
